

I understand that the Federal Communication Commission is considering overturning New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law because it is more stringent than the federal program. The telemarketers are going to equate their calling with a salesman that comes to your house and knocks on your door, saying you have the choice of answering the door or not. I'm saying that New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law is the "NO TRESPASSING" warning that keeps them off of my property without question. Telemarketers are as annoying as ants at a picnic! Telemarketers are nothing more than electronic home invaders and should be handled accordingly. I wonder how many of our senior citizens are taken advantage of each year by these telephone sharks. Maybe your federal law should be modeled after ours. If you think this letter is a little strong try calling me at dinner time. Thank you for your time. HJF
